Rindenschiffchen ahoi!

Wir machen im Wald Bienen- und Heuschrecke für Bienen, kleine Zweige als Mast und Blätter als Segel.

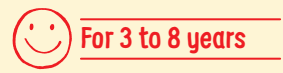

Die meisten kleinen Bachschiffchen werden aus dem Rindenschiffchen einfache Schiffchen unter Beachtung der Schutzregeln „Wer schneidet, der stirbt“ und können vom Körper weg schweben! Sie bilden ein Loch in der Mitte, stärken einen Zaun als Mast bauen und befestigen über ein nicht ganz großes Blatt als Segel. Jetzt können wir die Schiffchen zum Testlauf in den Bach setzen. Wenn ein Schiff Schlegel hat oder unterlegt, stabilisieren wir es mit kleinen Stäbchen eine lustige Flotte auf dem Wasser.

Baue aus Naturmaterial können wir die Bach ohne Bodenplan verschnüren lassen. Auch für die Kinder ist es wichtig, Schilfrohrwälder wieder herzustellen!

Ziele:
 Für ein kleines Floß werden wir mehrere gleich lange Stäbe (ca. 20 bis 30 cm) mit Schere eng nebeneinander oder überlappend mit Zahnrädern zusammen. Später wird es auf ein kleines Floß mit Material aus der Umgebung eine kleine Landwehr in spezialisierte und diese schwimmende Insel auf Bach oder Weiher bauen können.

Ort: Bach
Material: Schilfrohr, Handbohrer, Korken, weiß, Zahnstocher, Schere, Schere

- lost in the woods with Hansel and Gretel: a classic fairy tale to thrill along with and to reenact
- a story from the collection of the Brothers Grimm, told in a child-appropriate way
- ideal for encouraging speaking skills in kindergartens, pre-schools and primary schools

Sharing, when you hardly have enough yourself? Thanks to the attractive backgrounds and beautifully-illustrated figures, the Star Coins story by the Brothers Grimm comes alive. After the performance, replacing the figures on the narrative track invites children to reenact the story, encouraging them to speak freely, to produce language spontaneously and meaningfully. A complete set with figures, backgrounds and directing suggestions.
